

Chicago City Sticker & Residential Parking Permits

All Chicago residents driving, parking, leasing and/or owning a vehicle must purchase a City Sticker. Residents have the opportunity to purchase City Stickers and Residential Parking Permits at all MCH sites. Unfortunately, cash will not be accepted, only credit cards and checks are accepted.

CityKey ID

Available to all Chicago residents, the CityKey is a City of Chicago 4 in 1: government issued ID, Chicago Public Library card, a Chicago Transit Authority Ventra card & a Chicago Rx prescription drug discount card. Schedule an appointment at www.getcitykey.com

Dog Licenses

Obtain a dog license at any of our MCH sites. If your dog strays, the finder can call the City Clerk's Office with the registration number on the tag and we will help reunite you with your dog.

CHICAGO RESIDENTS!

The Office of the City Clerk is launching its reimagined Mobile City Hall initiative by partnering with sister agencies, City departments, CityKey business partners, community organizations, Aldermanic offices, State and County elected officials to bring local services directly to constituents. Residents will have the opportunity get a FREE CityKey, purchase their City Stickers, Residential Parking Permits and Dog Licenses at one of our regional sites.

Hegewisch Business Association

Local organization of businesses and friends of the Hegewisch Community seeking to promote the neighborhood businesses.

Greater West Town Project

A community-based organization that provides educational and economic opportunities for low-income communities of color in Chicago.

Chicago Public Library

Learn about library resources and programming, summer events for the whole family. Children's books will also be available.

City services should be accessible and available to all Chicagoans no matter where they live. That's why we are bringing our services to you as part of our reimagined Mobile City Hall!

Visit us online, at one of our office locations or at one of the Mobile City Hall events listed.
