(C) The operator of a sidewalk cafe shall install and maintain a physical boundary separating the permitted outdoor seating from the remainder of the public way. The construction, configuration and other characteristics of the boundary, including landscaping, shall be set forth by regulation.

(D) Sidewalk cafes that are taverns shall allow for food service on the premises of the sidewalk cafe.

(B) The sidewalk cafe shall extend to the public right-of-way in front of the neighboring property without interruption;

(C) The sidewalk cafe may not obstruct the view of any of the occupied neighboring property's windows from the street, or block the door of the neighboring property;

(D) The sidewalk cafe may not extend to a public right-of-way in front of a neighboring property that is used for the operation of a retail food establishment or retail liquor establishment;

(E) The extension shall be limited to the public right-of-way in front of a single neighboring property; and

(F) If the sidewalk cafe extends on the property side of the public right-of-way in front of the neighboring property, the applicant shall notify, in writing, the owner and occupant, if any, of such property of the applicant's plan to apply for a sidewalk cafe permit that would extend on the property side of the public right-of-way in front of the neighboring property. A copy of such notice shall be included with the sidewalk cafe permit application. No such notice shall be required if the sidewalk cafe extension is entirely on the curb side of the public right-of-way in front of the neighboring property.

10-28-855 Compliance With Code And Rules And Regulations Required.

All holders of a sidewalk cafe permit, retail food establishments selling food or alcoholic beverages in a sidewalk cafe operated by an owner or manager of an indoor retail market, and their employees shall be subject to and comply with all applicable requirements and standards for retail food establishments and taverns contained in the code Code, as amended, and the rules ~~and regulations~~ promulgated thereunder, and all laws, rules, and regulations pertaining to the sale of alcoholic beverages.

[R2023-793]

WHEREAS, Since its humble beginnings as a hotdog stand at the end of the streetcar line opened by a returning GI and his high school sweetheart to earn additional money during the summer, Superdawg has stood the test of time -- now celebrating 75 years of serving up Superdawgs, Whoopercheesies and Whoopskidawgs to generations of Chicagoans; and

WHEREAS, The Chicago City Council has been informed of this milestone by the Honorable Samantha Nugent, Alderperson of the 39th Ward; and

WHEREAS, Superdawg was founded in 1948 in the then-far northwest corner of the city at the intersection of Milwaukee, Devon and Nagle by Maurie and Flaurie Berman to earn some additional income while Maurie was studying at Northwestern University and Flaurie taught at Chicago Public Schools; and

WHEREAS, The couple designed the now-iconic prairie-style building that was as unique and distinctive as they were -- from the harlequin-diamond pattern to the two 12-foot-tall paper-mache hotdogs (named Maurie and Flaurie, of course) flirtatiously winking at each other when their neon lights are switched on, and eventually the iconic blue control tower which houses the "carhop in a wire" switchboard; and

WHEREAS, With a distinct building and a secret recipe to set themselves apart from the other hotdog stands popping up around the city following the war, all the Bermans needed was a name, and they found inspiration in the superheroes in the widely-popular comics; it's not a wiener, it's not a frankfurter, it's not a red hot -- it's a Superdawg; and

WHEREAS, Their location on the edge of the city, across from a forest preserve and Whealan Pool, attracted picnicking families and cruisin' teens alike; at the time, kids could ride the streetcar to the end of the line for a nickel and get a Superdawg for only 22 cents -- but if they were a few cents short, Maurie and Flaurie would still serve them and told them to bring the money back next time, which they never failed to do; and

WHEREAS, In 1950, after Maurie finished his studies, the couple realized that their true passion was Superdawg, so they gave up accounting and teaching, respectively, to open Superdawg year-round; and

WHEREAS, As Superdawg grew into a successful business, Maurie and Flaurie enjoyed raising their family of three children (though not on Superdawgs and Whoopercheesies alone), who all worked at Superdawg as teenagers; and

WHEREAS, Throughout the years, the menu would be expanded, and new locations would be opened, but the Berman family has continued the spirit and legacy of Superdawg, always staying true to Maurie and Flaurie's original goal: "Always to serve you in a manner that will make you want to return -- and bring your friends, and new generations, with you"; and

WHEREAS, To this day, you can order up a Superdawg -- 100 percent beef and still made according to Maurie's secret recipe, of course -- loaded with golden mustard, piccalilli, kosher dill pickle, chopped Spanish onions and a hot pepper on a poppyseed bun with a side of crinkle-cut Superfries, delivered by a carhop in that classic red box that still reads: "Your Superdawg Lounges Inside Contentedly Cushioned on Superfries"; and

WHEREAS, The story of Superdawg is more than that of an iconic family-run Chicago business or one of the last remaining drive-ins in the country; the story of Superdawg is a 75-year love story to Chicago and its most iconic food from the bottom of Maurie and Flaurie's "pure beef hearts"; now, therefore,

Be It Resolved, That we, the Mayor and members of the City Council of the City of Chicago, gathered here this 31st day of May 2023, do hereby congratulate Superdawg and the Berman Family on their 75th anniversary; and

At this point in the proceedings, Alderpersons Beale and Moore moved to withdraw their earlier motion to defer and publish substitute ordinance SO2023-2083 regarding the amendment of Year 2023 Annual Appropriation Ordinance within Fund Number 0100 to appropriate funds for certain city council committees reported out by the Committee on the Budget and Government Operations during the Reports of Committees. (See page 417)

Alderperson Lopez raised a question to the Chair as to whether a motion to suspend the Rules was needed to return to the Reports of Committees before considering the matter. The Chair ruled that the Reports of Committees are a category within the regular order of business covered by the Rules and, because the Body was simply returning to consider an additional item in that category, there was no need to suspend the Rules.
